Acknowledgements

Volume III of the Restatement of Labour Law in Europe focuses on the core area of individual labour law: protection against dismissal. It's impossible to overemphasise the importance of the relevant provisions. One is almost tempted to say: protection against dismissal is not everything, but everything is nothing without it. The volume illuminates all facets of protection against dismissal in the legal systems involved, including the elements of collective law.

I want to thank Elena Gramano, Effrosyni Bakirtzi and Nadine Rettenmaier. I also want to thank Niki Rodousakis who again polished up the English.

Thanks are also due to the project partners: the European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC), the Confederation of German Employers' Associations (BDA), the European Association of Labour Court Judges (EALCJ), the European Labour Lawyers Association (EELA) and the European Foundation for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions (Eurofound).

Without the European Commission, Volume III of the Restatement would not have been possible any more than the previous parts. Again, I must thank them for their support, understanding and patience. Finally, I would also like to thank the team at Beck Verlag, led by Thomas Klich, for taking on this complicated project.
