

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
List of Figures	xv
List of Tables	xvii

Introduction	1
--------------------	---

Part I Theoretical Framework and Research Question

1. Contract Enforcement Institutions	11
Cooperation: The Theoretical Problem.....	11
The Function of Contract Enforcement Institutions	13
Public and Private Contract Enforcement Institutions	13
A Taxonomy of Contract Enforcement Institutions.....	22
2. State-enforced Contract Law and the Development of Modern Market Economies	23
Efficiency	23
Public versus Private Ordering.....	24
The Decline of the Traditional Order	25
The Rise of State-enforced Contract Law	28
Key Results.....	37
3. Does Globalisation Lead to a Decline of State Contract Law?	39
Economic Globalisation	39
Research Questions.....	42

Part II Empirical Study

4. Research Design	51
Case Selection	51
Cross-border Software Development Contracts	54
Four Scenarios: Germany, Bulgaria–Romania, India, European Union	58
Methodology.....	60
The Interviews.....	62

5. Scenario 1: How German Companies Enforce Contracts When Buying Software Products in Asia and Eastern Europe	67
Transactional Risks	67
State-enforced Contract Law	68
Private Contract Enforcement Institutions	78
Key Findings.....	97
6. How Bulgarian and Romanian Firms Enforce Contracts When Selling Software Products to OECD Countries	99
Transactional Risks	99
State-enforced Contract Law	99
Private Contract Enforcement Institutions	107
Key Findings.....	115
7. How Indian Firms Enforce Contracts When Selling Software Products to OECD Countries	117
Transactional Risks	117
Significance of State-enforced Contract Law	117
Hybrids: Private–Public Governance Regimes	121
Private Contract Enforcement Institutions	124
Key Findings.....	131
8. How Contracts between German Buyers and Suppliers from Bulgaria and Romania are Enforced after Bulgaria and Romania Entered the EU.....	132
Methodological Changes	132
European Integration in the Field of Private International Law.....	134
State-enforced Contract Law Still Limited.....	136
Reasons for the Insignificance of State-provided Contract Law in the EU.....	141
Excursus: Statistical Data on the Application of the Brussels I Regulation	146
Informal Private Ordering Still Evolving.....	155
Key Findings.....	163
9. Overall Results	166
Insignificant State-enforced Contract Law.....	166
Significant Private Contract Enforcement Institutions.....	167
The Theoretical Puzzle	170

PART III Explanations and Theoretical Results

10. Economic Globalisation and the Decline of State Contract Law	175
Colliding Norms and Deficient Conflict-of-Law Rules	175
Unreliable National Courts and Enforcement Authorities.....	177
Being Exposed to Foreign National Norm Systems	178
Why does the EU not Make a Difference?	180
Key Results and Methodological Limitations	183
11. The Limits of International Commercial Arbitration	185
The Caseload of International Commercial Arbitration: Less than Meets the Eye.....	187
State Legal Systems Constraining International Commercial Arbitration	191
Maritime Arbitration: A Deviant Case.....	205
The Cartelisation of International Commercial Arbitration.....	208
Key Results.....	213
12. ICT and the Rise of Informal Contract Enforcement Institutions in Global Markets	220
Relational Contracts 2.0	220
Reputational Networks 2.0	224
Methodological Limitations	233
Conclusion: Global Order beyond Law.....	234
Bibliography	237
Index	247