

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1. The EUI Law Department and the Europeanisation of Law: An Introduction Francis Snyder	1
PART I. JURIDIFICATION OF POLITICS
2. Integration Through Law Revisited: Some Thoughts on the Juridification of the European Political Process Renaud Dehousse	15
3. Should Public Prosecution Be Independent? Luis María Díez-Picazo	31
PART II. CHANGES IN THE STRUCTURE OF GOVERNANCE
4. The Science of Private Law and the Nation-State Christian Joerges	47
5. The Role of Institutional Principles in the Judicial Development of the European Union Legal Order Bruno de Witte	83
6. European Media Law: A Perspective on the Challenge of Multimedia Karl-Heinz Ladeur	101
7. Legal Pluralism as an Evolutionary Achievement of Community Law Massimo La Torre	125
PART III. PARTIAL CONVERGENCE OF NATIONAL LEGAL SYSTEMS
8. The Protection of Public Interests and Regulation of Economic Activities Giuliano Amato	141
9. The Convergence of the Administrative Laws of the EU Member States Jürgen Schwarze	163
10. Some Basic Elements of Legal Phenomenology Patrick Nerhot	183
11. Trade Union Rights in EU Law Brian Bercusson	195

PART IV. UNINTENDED CONSEQUENCES

12. Why Should Europe Be a Democracy: The Corruption of Political Culture and the Principle of Toleration J.H.H. Weiler	213
13. Simplification of European Law Roland Bieber and Celsa Amarelle	219
14. Legal Irritants: Good Faith in British Law or How Unifying Law Ends Up in New Divergences Gunther Teubner	243
15. Global or Re-nationalised? Past and Future of European Labour Law Silvana Sciarra	269
16. Globalisation and Europeanisation as Friends and Rivals: European Union Law in Global Economic Networks Francis Snyder	293
Index	321