

Contents

Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xvi
Part I The Dilemma of Legal Perspectivalism	1
1 The Incompatibility of Weak Retributivism, the Rule of Law, and the Separation of Powers	3
Part II Sources of the Dilemma of Legal Perspectivalism	25
2 The Rejection of Moral Relativism	27
3 The Indefensibility of Practical Authority	62
4 The Failure of Influential Authority	95
5 The Limits of Advisory Authority	125
6 A Defense of Theoretical Authority	153
Part III The Moral Case for Legal Perspectivalism	185
7 Practical Errors: Pragmatic Foundations for Legal Perspectivalism	189
8 The Rule of Law Values: Principled Foundations for Judicial Perspectivalism	203
9 The Values of Democracy and the Separation of Powers: Principled Foundations for Constitutional Perspectivalism	226

Contents

Part IV The Moral Case Against Legal Perspectivalism	253
10 Consequentialism and Moral Correspondence	255
11 Deontology and Moral Correspondence	271
Part V Resolving the Dilemma of Legal Perspectivalism	295
12 Legal Practices Without Moral Combat	297
Bibliography	323
Index	339