

Contents

Table of Cases	xi
1. Introduction	1
2. Directive 93/13 and EC Consumer Law and Policy	3
A brief outline of Directive 93/13	3
The EC involvement in consumer policy and the roots of Directive 93/13	4
The rationale of the directive: the internal market argument	8
The consumer protection argument	21
The future of Directive 93/13	22
3. Unfair Terms Regulation: A Comparative Study	23
Overview	24
The rationale of unfair terms control in Italy and England	34
Implementation of Directive 93/13 in England and in Italy	40
4. Unfair Terms Control in England and Italy	45
Formal controls	45
Substantive controls	57
Different methods of adjudication	65
5. Subjective Scope of Application	69
The consumer in EC law	69
National traditions	75
Areas of conflict between the domestic and the European definitions	83
The business party	91
6. Application to Public Services	95
The national traditions	97
A 'European' approach to public services in Directive 93/13	103
7. Objective Scope of Application	115
Individually negotiated terms	116
'Core' exclusions	124
Contracts relating to land	132

x	Contents
8.	Formal and Substantive Controls	135
	Formal controls	135
	Substantive controls	143
	Different methods of adjudication	152
9.	Conclusion: A European Tradition?	165
	Convergence and divergence in the interpretation of Directive 93/13	165
	The European Court of Justice as the engine of European integration?	168
	Appendix I Directive 93/13	173
	Appendix II National Legislation	185
	England	187
	France	206
	Germany	209
	Italy	217
	Index	223