

Contents

| | | |
|----------|--|----------------|
| | Foreword | page ix |
| | Preface and acknowledgments | xiii |
| | List of treaties | xvi |
| | List of cases | xxvi |
| | List of abbreviations | xxviii |
| 1 | Introduction | 1 |
| | The scope of the subject: the definition of transboundary damage | 3 |
| | The physical relationship between the activity and the damage | 4 |
| | The requirement of human causality | 6 |
| | The threshold criterion | 7 |
| | The transboundary movement of harmful effects | 8 |
| | Three perspectives | 10 |
| | Accidental damage | 11 |
| | Non-accidental damage | 13 |
| | Damage to the global commons | 15 |
| | Part I Accidental damage | |
| 2 | Liability for accidental damage | 19 |
| | The factual context | 19 |
| | Nuclear activities | 20 |
| | Space activities | 24 |
| | Maritime oil transportation | 24 |
| | Other hazardous substances | 26 |
| | The existing legal regimes on accidental damage | 30 |

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| vi | CONTENTS | |
| | The nuclear regime | 33 |
| | The outer space regime | 45 |
| | The regime for maritime accidents | 52 |
| | The regime for accidents caused by hazardous substances | 60 |
| 3 | Substantive rules and principles: issues and problems | 73 |
| | The question of attribution: State responsibility | 73 |
| | Liability and insurance: the issue of channeling | 80 |
| | Recoverable damage | 86 |
| | Loss of life and personal injury | 87 |
| | Property damage | 89 |
| | The costs of preventive measures, response, and reinstatement | 94 |
| | Procedural aspects and problems | 98 |
| | Treaty provisions and general rules | 99 |
| | The principles of non-discrimination | 105 |
| | Part II Non-accidental damage | |
| 4 | Liability for non-accidental damage | 113 |
| | The factual setting | 114 |
| | Air pollution | 114 |
| | Pollution of water resources | 119 |
| | Damage caused by land use | 128 |
| | The doctrine of sovereignty and balance of interests | 131 |
| | The national domain and the concept of shared resources | 136 |
| | The balancing of interests | 144 |
| | The criterion of harm | 158 |
| 5 | The doctrine of due diligence and standards of conduct | 162 |
| | The doctrine of due diligence | 162 |
| | The procedural duties | 165 |
| | The duty of assessment of harm | 165 |
| | The duty of notification and the right to be notified | 168 |
| | The duty of consultation and negotiation | 173 |
| | Procedural duties and substantive rights and obligations | 175 |

| | CONTENTS | vii |
|----------|--|-----|
| | Legal issues relating to non-accidental damage | 178 |
| | Proof of actual injury and evidence of causation | 178 |
| | Remedies | 182 |
| | Part III Damage to the global commons | |
| 6 | Liability for damage to the global commons | 191 |
| | The concept and the context | 192 |
| | The high seas | 193 |
| | Outer space | 196 |
| | The atmosphere | 200 |
| | The polar regions | 204 |
| | The existing legal regimes for the global commons | 207 |
| | Prohibiting certain harmful activities in the common areas | 208 |
| | General rules of State responsibility for damage to the global commons | 211 |
| | Private international rules of liability for certain types of harmful activities in the commons | 234 |
| 7 | Legal issues relating to damage to the global commons | 236 |
| | Erga omnes obligations and the question of standing | 237 |
| | The element of harm | 251 |
| | Environmental damage | 252 |
| | Prevention and mitigation costs | 255 |
| | Clean-up and remedial measures | 256 |
| | Punitive damages | 257 |
| | Limitation of liability | 258 |
| | State liability | 259 |
| | Institutional and financial mechanisms | 259 |
| | Part IV Underlying principles | |
| 8 | The nature and basis of international liability | 269 |
| | The character of the rules governing transboundary liability | 270 |
| | Normativity | 271 |
| | Equity | 277 |
| | Efficiency | 283 |

| | | |
|------|---|-----|
| viii | CONTENTS | |
| | The basis of international liability | 289 |
| | The notion of fault | 295 |
| | Strict liability and liability for risk on the international plane | 299 |
| | The basis of State responsibility and liability in the present context | 312 |
| 9 | Conclusions | 317 |
| | An appraisal | 317 |
| | The principle of prevention | 322 |
| | The principle of common but differentiated responsibilities | 324 |
| | The principle of sustainable development | 325 |
| | The prospects | 327 |
| | Bibliography | 333 |
| | Index | 356 |