

Contents

Table of Cases	ix
Table of Legislation	xliii
1 Effective Judicial Protection Within the Community Legal Order	1
Centralised and Decentralised Enforcement of Community Law	1
Legal Framework of Community Intervention in National Remedies and Procedural Rules	4
Nature and Structure of Analysis to Follow	65
2 ‘Integration Through Law’ and the Enforcement Deficit Debate	69
‘Integration Through Law’: Uniformity and Effectiveness	69
‘Integration Through Law’: The Traditional Parameters of the Enforcement Deficit Debate	94
3 Regulatory Differentiation Within the Community Legal Order	113
Vertical Differentiation	114
Horizontal Differentiation	152
4 Regulatory Differentiation and the Enforcement Deficit Debate	171
‘Integration Through Law’: Differentiation and the Enforcement Deficit Debate	171
Differentiation as a Symptom of Constitutional Change	174
Differentiation as a Cause of Constitutional Change	189
The Enforcement Deficit Debate: An Alternative Sectoral Model	200
5 The Court of Justice’s Caselaw on National Remedies and Procedural Rules I	227
Early Period: Extensive Deference to National Autonomy	227
Middle Period: The Assertion of Increasing Community Remedial Competence	229
Current Caselaw: A General Trend Towards Negative Harmonisation	232
Sectoral Credentials of the General Trend Towards Negative Harmonisation in the Current Caselaw	293

6 The Court of Justice's Caselaw on National Remedies and Procedural Rules II	311
Centralised and Decentralised Enforcement Against Community Institutions	312
Recovery of Unlawful State Aids	338
Decentralised Enforcement of Competition Policy	359
7 Conclusion	389
Select Bibliography	397
Index	407