

Internationalrechtliche Studien

Beiträge zum Internationalen Privatrecht, zum Einheitsrecht und zur Rechtsvergleichung

Herausgegeben von Ulrich Magnus und Peter Mankowski

Band 60

Lars Meyer

Non-Performance and Remedies under International Contract Law Principles and Indian Contract Law

A comparative survey of the UNIDROIT Principles of International Commercial Contracts,
the Principles of European Contract Law, and Indian statutory contract law

PETER LANG

Internationaler Verlag der Wissenschaften

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	13
Introduction	15
I. Generally	15
II. Structure and methodology	18
Chapter I: Overview of the UNIDROIT and European Principles	21
I. Generally	21
II. History	23
A. UNIDROIT Principles	23
B. Principles of European Contract Law	25
1. Harmonisation of contract laws in the European Union	26
2. History of the European Principles	28
III. Methodology, authority, substance and applicability	29
A. Methodology of the Working Groups	30
B. Structure and language	31
C. Legal character and authority	32
D. Applicability and substantive scope	33
1. Applicability of the Principles to international contracts	34
a. Parties' express choice of the Principles as lex contractus	34
b. Applicability in absence of express choice by the parties	35
c. Incorporation as contract terms and applicability under the lex contractus	36
d. Applicability in arbitral proceedings	37
2. Substantive scope	37
3. Further scope of applicability	38
E. Differences in substance	39
F. Practical relevance	41
IV. Alternatives worth coexisting, or competing variations of similar content?	44
Chapter II: Overview of Indian statutory contract law	47
I. Indian Contract Act, 1872	47
A. History	47

B. Scope and structure	49
II. Specific Relief Act, 1963	51
Chapter III: Non-performance in general	53
I. Generally	53
A. Principles	53
1. Unitary concept of non-performance	53
2. What constitutes non-performance	54
B. Indian statutory law	56
C. Comparative analysis	58
II. Other party being responsible for the non-performance	59
A. Principles	59
1. Prevention of performance by the promisee	59
2. Creditor's failure to accept tender of performance	60
3. Consequences	61
a. Prevention of performance by promisee	61
b. Promisee's rejection of a tender	62
B. Indian statutory law	63
1. Prevention of performance by the creditor	62
2. Promisee's failure to provide necessary facilities for performance	64
3. Promisee's refusal to accept tender of performance	64
C. Comparative analysis	65
III. Right to withhold performance	67
A. Principles	67
1. Requirements for withholding performance	68
2. Consequences	70
B. Indian statutory law	71
1. Parties to perform simultaneously (Indian Contract Act Sec. 51)	72
2. One promise to be performed first (Indian Contract Act Sec. 54)	72
3. Consequences	73
C. Comparative analysis	74
IV. Right to cure	76
A. Principles	76
B. Indian statutory law	78
C. Comparative analysis	78
V. Additional period for performance	79
A. Principles	79

B. Indian statutory law	82
C. Comparative analysis	83
VI. Exemption clauses	84
A. Principles	84
1. Clauses covered	85
2. Clauses which may not be invoked	86
3. Consequences	87
B. Indian statutory law	87
C. Comparative analysis	88
VII. Force majeure	89
A. Principles	89
1. Generally	89
2. Requisites of force majeure	90
3. Consequences of force majeure	92
a. Specific performance and damages	92
b. Termination of the contract	93
B. Indian statutory law	94
1. Subsequent impossibility and frustration	94
2. Consequences	96
C. Comparative analysis	97
 Chapter IV: Overview of the systems of remedies	 101
I. Principles	101
II. Indian statutory law	103
 Chapter V: Specific performance	 107
I. Specific performance of monetary and non-monetary obligations	107
A. Principles	107
1. Generally	107
2. Right to performance of monetary obligations	109
a. Requisites of specific performance	109
b. Exceptions	109
c. Consequences	110
3. Right to performance of non-monetary obligations	111
a. Performance impossible or unlawful	111
b. Performance unreasonably burdensome or expensive	112
c. Cover transaction	114
d. Performance being of exclusively personal character	114
e. Performance not being requested within reasonable time	115
f. Consequences	116

4. Judicial penalty	116
B. Indian statutory law	117
1. Generally	117
2. When specific relief may be awarded	118
a. Specifically enforceable contracts	118
b. Contracts which cannot be specifically enforced	120
c. Judicial discretion	122
d. General requirements of and defences against claim of specific performance	123
3. Consequences of a suit for specific relief	125
4. Claim for agreed sum of money	126
C. Comparative analysis	126
1. Monetary obligations	126
2. Non-monetary obligations	127
a. Performance impossible or unlawful	128
b. Performance unreasonably burdensome or expensive	128
c. Performance readily available on the market or from an alternative source	129
d. Performance being of exclusively personal character	129
e. Performance to be requested within reasonable time	130
f. Personal bars to specific relief	130
g. Implications of a claim of or suit for specific performance	131
3. Evaluation	131
II. Change of remedy	133
A. Principles	133
B. Indian statutory law	134
C. Comparative analysis	136
Chapter VI: Termination of contracts	139
I. Grounds and means of termination	139
A. Principles	139
1. Generally	140
2. Requisites of the right to terminate the contract	140
a. Fundamental non-performance	140
b. Termination after expiration of additional period for performance	147
c. Anticipatory non-performance	149
d. Failure to provide assurance of due performance within reasonable time	150
e. Contracts to be performed in parts	151

f. Termination notice	152
3. Contract terminated automatically	154
4. Judicial or arbitral termination	155
B. Indian statutory law	155
1. Generally	155
2. Contract automatically void due to impossibility, unlawfulness, or frustration	156
a. Grounds of automatic termination	156
b. Consequences	158
3. Termination of voidable contract	159
a. Repudiation and anticipatory breach	159
b. Termination in response to being prevented from performing	161
c. Failure to perform at or within fixed time	162
d. Means of effecting termination	163
C. Comparative analysis	164
1. Fundamental non-performance v. impossibility, frustration and repudiation	164
a. Severity of the non-performance	165
b. Strict compliance with the contract	166
c. Conduct of the non-performing party	166
d. Failure to perform within additional period for performance .	167
e. Anticipatory non-performance	167
f. The concepts of fundamental non-performance and termination at the option of the aggrieved party as means of “improving” the doctrine of frustration?	168
4. Failure to provide adequate assurance of performance	170
5. Termination in response to being prevented from performing	171
6. Termination notice	172
II. Consequences of termination	172
A. Principles	172
1. General effects of termination	172
2. Restitution	173
a. Generally	173
b. Restitution in kind	175
c. Allowance in money instead of restitution in kind	177
d. Restitution only for the time after termination	179
B. Indian statutory law	180
1. General effects of termination	180
2. Restitution	181

a.	Restitution of benefits received under a terminated contract by force of law	181
b.	Restitution of benefits received under a contract terminated at the aggrieved party's option	183
c.	Quantum meruit	184
C.	Comparative Analysis	185
1.	General effects of termination	185
2.	Restitution	186
a.	UNIDROIT Principles and Indian statutory contract law	187
b.	Principles of European Contract Law	188
c.	Evaluation	189
Chapter VII:	Damages	193
I.	Right to Damages	193
A.	Principles	193
1.	Generally	193
2.	Non-performance of a contractual obligation	194
3.	Harm sustained by the aggrieved party	196
4.	Causal link between non-performance and loss	196
5.	Non-performance not excused	197
6.	General measure of damages	197
B.	Indian statutory law	199
1.	Generally	199
2.	Breach of a valid contract	203
3.	Loss or damage sustained by the aggrieved party	204
4.	Causal link between breach of contract and loss	205
5.	Specific requirements	205
6.	General measure of damages	206
C.	Comparative analysis	208
1.	Generally	208
2.	Non-performance/breach of contract	209
3.	Harm caused by non-performance	210
4.	Non-performance not excused	210
5.	General measure of damages	212
II.	Certainty of harm	213
A.	Principles	213
B.	Indian statutory law	214
C.	Comparative analysis	215
III.	Foreseeability of harm	216
A.	Principles	216

B. Indian statutory law	217
C. Comparative analysis	219
IV. Proof of harm in case of replacement transaction and by current price	221
A. Principles	221
1. Proof of harm in case of replacement transaction	221
2. Proof of harm by current price	223
B. Indian statutory law	223
C. Comparative analysis	225
V. Harm due in part to aggrieved party	226
A. Principles	226
B. Indian statutory law	227
C. Comparative analysis	227
VI. Mitigation of harm	228
A. Principles	228
B. Indian statutory law	229
C. Comparative analysis	231
VII. Interest	232
A. Principles	232
1. Interest for failure to pay money	232
2. Interest on damages	234
B. Indian statutory law	235
1. Interest for non-payment of money	235
a. Interest Act, 1978	236
b. Recoverability of interest by virtue of damages?	238
2. Interest on damages	238
C. Comparative analysis	239
1. Interest for failure to pay money	239
2. Interest on damages	241
3. Evaluation	241
VIII. Manner of monetary redress	242
IX. Currency in which to assess damages	243
A. Principles	243
B. Indian statutory law	244
X. Agreed payment for non-performance	244
A. Principles	244
B. Indian statutory law	246
C. Comparative analysis	249
Chapter VIII: Reduction of price	253
I. Principles	253

II. Indian statutory law	254
III. Comparative analysis	255
Conclusions	257
I. Generally	257
II. Non-performance in general	257
III. Specific performance	261
IV. Termination of contracts	262
V. Damages	265
VI. Reduction of price	269
Bibliography	271