
Journal of European Consumer and Market Law

EuCML 6/2025 · Volume 14
23 December 2025 · Pages 277–356

Content

Editorial	Christiane Wendehorst Keep Calm and Read the Proposals: A Legal Lens on the Digital Omnibus	277
	Sergio Cámara Lapuente Digital Force, Green Fuse, and... Simplification: Do Not Let Consumer Law Wither Away (On the Occasion of the EuCML Best Paper Award 2025)	281
Articles (peer reviewed)	Sarah Hinck Technological Rule-Setting Power of Digital Platform Ecosystem Interfaces – A Competition Law Perspective	287
	Jie Ouyang Turning EU consumer law against itself? Taking stock of the EU's sustainable consumption strategy	299
	Nicholas Mouttotos/Eva Angeline Trinidad A requiem for the 'illusion' of consent in consumer contracts? Reasonable expectations as a standard for determining the validity of the consumer contract	313
	Thitinan Ngamsanguan Digital Fairness, Algorithmic Manipulation and Behavioural Exploitation in the EU: A Universal Vulnerability-Informed Critique of Consumer Protection in the Digital Services Act	325
Comment & Analysis	Sofia Caruso/Monica Schellemans Kent v Apple: The class action overturns Apple's playbook	334
	Jarne Jacobs Deceptive Marks and the EU's Turn Against Meat-Evoking Labelling	340
Conference Report	Daniel Foà Conference Report – "The New Consumer Credit and the Directive 2023/2225/EU"	344
EuCML Notices	Case Law	347
	Library	356
	Forthcoming Events	356